SEVENTH CAVALRY BOYS PUT ON FAST BOXING BOUTS AT YSLETA

Pierce and Battig Battle Toe to Toe; Kid Bove and Joe Johnston Draw in Fast Exhibition; Wrestling Bout and Preliminary Mitt Attractions Full of Pep; Quartet and Comedian Make Big Hits.

A N exciting program was that given by the men of B troop, Seventh Cavalry, Saturday night at Ysleta, under supervision of Corp. Werly and bugler Nace Bloom, fast waterweight of the Seventh Cavalry, and a brother of Phil Bloom, the famous lightweight fighter. The exhibition was free to the citizens of Ysleta and they are still saying that the men of B troop, now stationed at Ysleta, are royal entertainers.

The first event consisted of a fast wrestling match, followed by four round boxing bouts and two all-around matches. The program was opened by B troop quartet which made a big hit. Corp. Werly sang two songs and had the house in an uproar.

In the opening wrestling match, which was very fast, horsemaster Seridella lost to Bob Hunter, both of B troop, after 20 minutes of hard wrestling. Corp. C. Werly refereed the bout.

Not Afraid to Hit.
The first boxing bout of the evening brought together Pvt. A. L. Moore and Pvt. Broadway. Both boys slugged to a four-round draw. Bugler Bloom refereed the bout.

(As a Jewish comedian) Pvt. Kullback had the house in an uproar. In the second bout, between Corp. Bulino and George Mellendorf, Bobbie had a shade over Mellendorf, but referee Werly called the bout a draw. Between the second and third bout the quartet gave another selection.

The third bout was between E. Anderson and saddlej Beldan, being slow on account of the principals being unevenly matched. Sergt. Culligan refereed the bout, announcing a draw.

Two Fast Ones.
The semi final of the evening which went six rounds between two of the cleverest featherweights of the Seventh Cavalry. Kid Bove and Joe Johnston, produced all of the fastest rounds of the evening. The battle was a rather throughout. At the end of the sixth round it was hard to tell who was the winner. Referee Bloom called the bout a draw.

The Best Thing.
The main event was a fast slug-fest between Frank Pierce and Kid Battig, both of B troop. Both boys slugged to the limit for six exciting rounds. While Pierce had a slight edge over Battig, Sergt. Culligan called the bout a draw.

Bugler Nace Bloom, the waterweight, was to box horsemaster Seridella, but Seridella was injured in the wrestling bout and could not go on. Sergt. Culligan was official time-keeper.

The bout was staged at Miller's moving picture parlors. All contestants were members of B troop, Seventh Cavalry.

SILVER CUPS FOR EQUESTRIAN FEATS

WITH the various organizations at Fort Meigs in quarter practice and mass singing, one of the big features of Wednesday's all day meet promises to be the contests for silver cups offered for the best singing. A silver cup, donated by the Popular Dry Goods company, will be awarded to the organization giving the best mass singing, while the silver cup donated by the White House will be awarded to the best quartet.

The judges will be prominent Ft. Meigs officers.
The singers have been working hard. About dusk quartets have been heard all about the fort for the last week and there has been regular practice in mass singing every morning. The musical directors of the several organizations have been right on the job and the contest promises to call forth sharp powers of judging as the rivalry is keen and results promise to be close in several cases.

The usual presentation of cups will occur at 3 o'clock Wednesday night on the Fort Meigs parade grounds and at the same time Fort Meigs officers will call on the singers, exchange the silver cups and award the prizes.

Several of the best Meigs officers are being to exchange halloos.
Crack and steel ensembles will be held during the morning, beginning at 9 o'clock. In the afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, will be held the equestrian contests, which promise some fine equestrian exhibitions. Two silver cups will be awarded, one for the officer showing the best form, and one for the enlisted men. Mounted basketball and other equestrian events will follow. There will be a swimming pool Wednesday.
Wednesday's program is the most complete yet prepared for the monthly meet, and promises to be a most enjoyable one. All events are free and citizens of Ft. Meigs are invited to attend.
